About Us

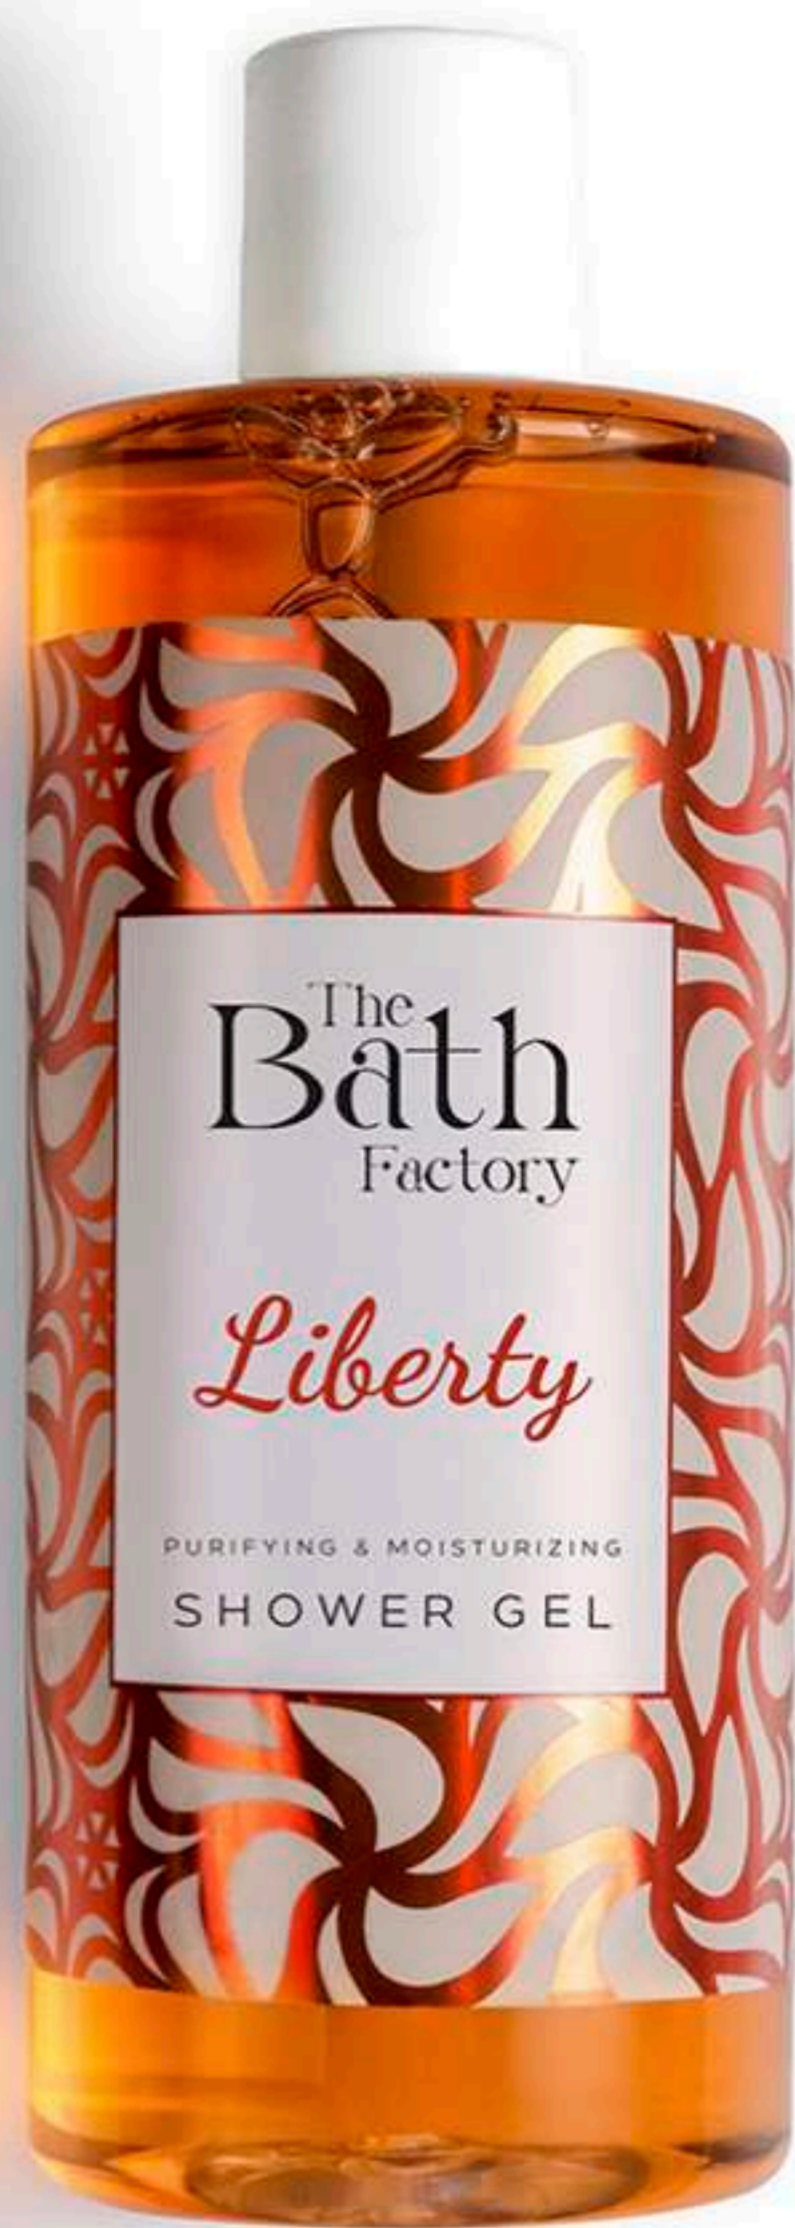

At The Bath Factory, we are a premium personal care brand that turns the concept of an at-home spa into a joyful and uplifting experience. With our natural and cruelty-free ingredients, we care for both you and the planet. Our special formulas and carefully selected fragrances elevate your bath from a simple cleansing step to a soul-refreshing ritual.

Thanks to our philosophy of accessible luxury and our playful identity, we offer a small but meaningful escape from stressful days, bringing the comfort of a daily spa experience into your home with a vibrant touch of happiness.

We believe that in the rush of everyday life, bathing should be more than just a routine, it should be a celebration of the senses. In every formula, we place the highest importance on our respect for nature and all living beings, proudly adhering to cruelty-free, vegan, and natural ingredient principles. Because we know that taking care of yourself is also a beautiful way to care for the world.
